

Annual Conference Registration Form

The students of the Algonquin College Social Service Worker Intensive program, in partnership with the Ontario Social Service Worker Association, are hosting a conference to bring awareness to male survivors of childhood sexual abuse. The day will consist of a presentation from keynote speaker, Mark Hawkins, who will share with us his journey through trauma and recovery. Mr. Hawkins works for the City of Toronto, is a survivor of childhood sexual abuse, and has spoken at 10 conferences over the past two years on understanding and responding to male sexual abuse hosted by the Ontario Provincial Police and Canadian Centre for Abuse Awareness.

Following his presentation there will be lunch, breakout sessions, and a closing ceremony.

When: November. 11/ 2011

Location: Algonquin College, ACCE Building Salon A, B, and C
